Where to find FIRST Washington's registrations-

The screenshot shows a web browser at the URL firstwa.org/challenge-registration/. The page features a dark navigation bar with a 'Donate' button and the FIRST WASHINGTON logo. Below the navigation bar, the main heading is 'FIRST Washington Registration'. A bulleted list explains that FIRST Washington runs the FIRST LEGO League Challenge Events, which may include physical, remote, or a combination of physical and remote elements, and that an additional fee of $350 is charged for participation. A black button labeled 'FIRST Washington Registration Form' is positioned below the list. Further down, the heading 'FIRST Washington Event Registration' is displayed. Another bulleted list states that FLL Challenge teams are required to fill out an event registration form indicating their 3 event preferences, and that once the $350 fee is secured, teams will be confirmed in one of their 3 preferences. A second black button labeled 'FIRST Washington Event Registration Form' is located at the bottom of the page.

FLL Challenge

FIRST Washington Registration 2023-2024

All teams are required to fill out the FIRST Washington team registration form in order to participate. This is to help us better track the demographic and other information about our teams. FIRST Washington needs this information to apply for grants that we can pass along to you as well as to report back to donors for funds allocated. All teams participating with FIRST Washington will need to fill this out as well as the event registration survey (coming out later in the year) to be placed in an event. If you are interested in applying for the FIRST Washington grant, make sure you check yes in the Grant section. The FIRST Washington Grant will close September 30th
